Young adult and children's ART CLASSES: All levels of experience welcome

Day and time	Class	Description	Price per class
Wednesday Snr One class 15:30 – 17:00	Paint from the heart Senior kidz class 1 - expressive art classes for 5th – 12 grades A fun, therapeutic art experience. You'll start by creating a mess! You'll scribble, make marks, write out thoughts and feelings, and let the emotions spill. Anything goes! Then you'll examine your messes and find shapes and forms in the chaos. Learn how to isolate the shapes and forms and to create beauty from the mess. You'll end with lots of layers that peek out, interact, and vibrate with meaning. We create and paint mostly in A3 art journals.	For the serious young artist, students will be guided in taking their work to the next level, learning how to achieve a sense of distance, perspective and dimension while understanding the use of broken colour and various techniques in bringing art form to life. Students will be encouraged to develop their own style A free style of drawing and painting and exploring mixed media techniques, playing with the different mediums and just enjoying art! Sometimes we just need to tap into our right-brains for some spontaneity, free associations and a vacation from their analytical left-brains. The goal of Splatter is to provide a relaxed, friendly environment where fun and creativity can be explored; where there is no pressure to "do it right" or to be perfect; where individual uniqueness is not only recognized but celebrated!	$25 per class paid weekly on attendance or $20.00 times the weeks per term, normally 10 so $200 if paid upfront within first two weeks of term start Art Journals $50 each - to be bought before class starts, belongs to student to take home when completed, A beautiful way to showcase their art journey and keep their artworks together.
